DEBS ON THE STRIKE.

Engene V. Debs lectured in the Metropolitan Temple, San Francisco, on the great strike. He asked, "Who are the conspirators?" and said as a general thing he depreciated strikes, as they are to be viewed as a misfortune in one sense, but when it comes to a choice between strikes and degradation and slavery he will take the strike.

The Pullman strike was born of tyranny and oppression. At Pullman the employees were paid every two weeks. Each was given two checks, one for pay and the other for rent. Many of the men after paying rent had but a dollar or two to live on for the following two weeks. Everything belongs to the Pullman Company. The men live in Pullman houses, eat Pullman groceries, drink Pullman water and when they die they are transported in a Pullman hearse and buried in a Pullman coffin in a Pullman cemetery.

The Pullman Company was organized in 1867 and to-day it has a paid-up capital of $35,000,000. The dividends have averaged from 10% to 12 per cent per annum. The year before the strike the dividends were increased $800,000 and wages were decreased $300,000. Before the strike a committee waited on Mr. Pullman, informed him of their grievances and he promised to inquire into the matter. The next day the men who composed the committee were discharged and 4,200 men and women went out and the strike was on.

Mr. Debs charges the General Managers' Association of the twenty-six railroads centering in Chicago with being the real conspirators. The constitution of the American Railway Union provides for sympathy with strikes. Soon after the Union was formed a systematic reduction of wages began on all the lines, and those reductions would be going on now had it not been for the strike. There is a very strong, clearly defined sentiment in favor of the Government ownership of railroads, and if that is said of the Southern Pacific Company be true the Government had better take possession of the road before the road takes possession of the people.

Mr. Debs spoke of the contract in the rate of wages in different parts of the country. The Louisville Central paid section hands 67 1/2 cents a day and this rate is not confined to that line. The companies avoid any disturbances by not making reductions in all the departments at one time. The courts are in league with the railroads and other moneyed monopolies, and the poor, plain people are simply slaves. We were confronted with the spectacle a short time ago of a United States Court holding up thousands of railroad men while the companies went through their pockets Judge Jenkins he characterized as a judicial highwayman. Many of our laws are a dead letter so far as corporations are concerned. Under the Anti-Trust Act monopolistic trusts are increasing, but when workmen unite for self-protection there is a provision found in that same Anti-Trust law that prohibits such labor unity.

Mr. Debs' picture may be rather highly colored, but there is much truth in his statements. The decisions of Judge Jenkins was so manifestly unjust to railroad employees that the higher courts overruled them and decided that railroad employees have some rights which railroad corporations must respect.

THE INCOME TAX BILL.

The Governor has vetoed the Income Tax bill on the ground that it is unconstitutional. The bill exempts from taxation incomes of less than $1,000 per annum and imposes a higher rate of taxation on some incomes than it does upon others. It is therefore clear that it does not provide for a uniform rate of taxation as prescribed by the Constitution, Section 1, Article X, of which reads:

The Legislature shall provide by law for a uniform and equal rate of assessment and taxation, and shall prescribe such regulations as shall secure a just valuation for taxation of all property, real and personal, and possessory, excepting mines and mining claims, the proceeds of which alone shall be taxed, and also excepting such property as may be exempted by law for municipal, educational, literary, scientific, religious or charitable purposes."

Exempting incomes of less than $1,000 and taxing incomes which exceed $1,000 four times as much as incomes of not less than $1,000 nor more than $1,500, is not a uniform and equal rate of taxation, and for that and other reasons stated in the message the Governor does not approve the bill. It appears that the Constitution of Nevada will have to be amended before a graduated income tax can be levied and collected.

SILVER IN CALIFORNIA.

Silver Leagues are being organized in California to further the cause of the American Bimetallic party. A State Central Committee has been organized and among its members are ex-United States Senator Cornelius Cole, who advocated the election of the Populist ticket last November, Enoch Pepper, Chairman of the Populist Central Committee of Los Angeles, Colonel John B. Berry, who was Collector of the Port of San Diego under Harrison's Administration, L. A. Sheldon, ex-Governor of Louisiana, formerly a Republican, John Love, a Republican capitalist, J.

A. Farnsworth, a prominent merchant, and Alva Udell, a prominent real estate man. Mr. Udell is now visiting Nevada. He says the Silver cause is gaining ground daily in Southern California, and Republicans, Democrats and Populists are joining the Silver Leagues by hundreds. He says Southern California is certain to give a majority for the Silver party at the next election. Farmers and orchardists see that the prices of their products are governed to a great extent by the price of silver and they are getting to be most enthusiastic advocates of free coinage.

CLAIMS ADJUSTER.

Byron Waters has been appointed Claims Adjuster by the Southern Pacific Company to succeed W. S. Millpaugh. Mr. Waters has been a Democrat and an unsuccessful candidate for Congress, State Senator, Supreme Judge and Superior Judge. He is a lawyer and H. E. Huntington says he is the only man who has been considered for the place. This should relieve the Carson Tribune's anxiety and when it cools down its normal condition it should apologize to George S. Nixon of Humboldt.

SPAIN IN HOT WATER AGAIN.

A Sentinel Shoots a British Sailor. BALTIMORE, March 23.—At 2 A. M. on March 19 Spanish Sentries murdered a shot and killed a seaman of the British ship Laurestina, and badly wounded a Cuban negro at St. Jago, Cuba. The British Government is investigating and complications between England and Spain may result.

The Laurestina arrived here this afternoon from St. Jago. Her officers stated that the murdered seaman was John Lowe, aged 35 years, a resident of Leeds, England, who shipped at Cardiff, Wales.

On the night of March 18 the crew went ashore, and after a stroll started to return to the ship. When nearly there Lowe started back to St. Jago in company with a Cuban negro. En route they had to pass a Cuban fort, garrisoned by Spanish troops.

Suddenly a sentinel sprang out in the darkness and in Spanish commanded them to halt. Lowe did not understand the command and started to hurry away. The next instant the sentinel fired and Lowe dropped down a corpse. The negro then started to run. He, too, was shot and mortally wounded. The dead man and the wounded negro were then carried inside the fort. At daybreak Captain Gavin of the Laurestina went to the fort and demanded the body of the man.

This demand was refused and he has made a formal complaint to the British Government. An investigation is to be made.

The officers of the steamer state that when she left Cuba on March 20 the revolution was progressing quickly.

ALASKA COMMERCIAL COMPANY.

It Declares Enormous Dividends. SAN FRANCISCO, March 23.—The trial of the Wasserman-Sloss suit revealed the enormous dividends paid by the Alaska Commercial Company out of its sealing contract. The dividends amounting to $800 on every $100 were paid for five years. The firm had frequently millions on deposits made from the capture of seals. Sloss bought some of the shares from Wasserman for $60 each.

Honoring Bismarck.

FARSDENBURGH, March 23.—Prince Henry of Prussia, brother of Emperor William, accompanied by his six-year-old son, Prince Waldemar, arrived here at 11 o'clock. He was followed by the Grand Duke of Baden, Prince Hohenlohe, Chancellor; Prince Alexander Von Hohenlohe, youngest son of the Chancellor; the Baden Ministry and Count Witomski, Chief of the Imperial Chancellery.

Prince Bismarck met his visitors on the threshold of his castle, greeting them warmly. At luncheon Prince Henry of Prussia proposed the health of Prince Bismarck, adding: "May God still long preserve you."

A Train Held Up.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., March 23.—The train on the Iron Mountain road was held up by robbers last night north of Williamsville, Missouri. The robbers cut off the mail, express and baggage cars, ran about half a mile and robbed the express car. It is not known what booty they got. The conductor lost his watch and money. The robbers got very little out of the small safe which they forced the messenger to open. All the money was in a bigger safe which had been locked by the agent at Poplar Bluff. There were only two of the rob-

Murdered by a Madman.

New York, March 23.—That the murder of the actress, Amy T. Hill, and the suicide of her slayer, the actor, John Bigelow, were the work of a madman is made certain by the statement to-day of John Holden, an intimate friend of Bigelow, that Bigelow had been insane at least five times in the past ten years. The last time he was in a lunatic asylum was in the fall of 1892. His insanity, in the belief of Holden, was the result of a severe attack of Roman fever, contracted when a two-year-old baby in Rome. A note was found on his person reading: "My darling sweetheart, Jack. Au revoir, Amy."

Did Not Have the Bullion.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23.—The gasoline schooner Anita, which was suspected of having on board $24,000 of treasure recently secured by robbers at Ensenada, Mexico, has arrived at San Francisco. A thorough search of the Anita by the police and Custom officers revealed none of the plunder.

A New York Village Burned.

CANASBROOK, N. Y., March 23.—The entire business part of this city and thirty dwellings were destroyed by fire to-day; loss, $100,000. Half of the people are homeless. The fire was not extinguished until two fire brigades arrived from Horseville on a special train to help.

Ten years of age, but who declines to give his name to the public, makes this authorized, confidential statement to us:

"When I was one year old, my mamma died of consumption. The doctor said that if I, too, would soon die, and all our neighbors thought that even if I did not die, I would never be able to walk, because I was so weak and puny. A purifying formed and broke under my arm. I hurt my finger and it swelled and threw out pieces of bone. It hurt myself so as to break the skin. It was sure to become a running sore. I had to take lots of medicine, but nothing has done me so much good as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It has made me well and strong." T. D. M., Monticello, Maine.

CAPITAL NOVELS.

The Chronic Investigation of the Carson Mint—That $40,000 Gold Brick—Incognito Tax Voted—The Change in the Orphans' Home—Superintendent—Tim Dempsey's Cocoon.

(Correspondence of the JOURNAL.)
CARSON CITY, March 28, 1895.
CARSON MINT DROPPINGS.

The Mint Investigator, Andrew Mason, keeps steadily and methodically along, every move made being under his own personal supervision. He is communicative enough on all other subjects, but as to what he is doing or intends to do in or about the mint he says not a word; and all the mint officials and employees follow suit and keep their mouths closely shut, therefore it is extremely difficult to get any reliable items of definite information. It may be briefly stated, however, that the investigation has got out of the melting and refining into the assaying department, and it will not take much longer to get through with the doings of the present—Adams—administration, which commenced last June.

A sensational story has been going the rounds to the effect that a big gold "brick" from the Standard mine, Bodie, worth over $40,000, has been discovered to be stolen and a bogus affair substituted in its place. As it would weigh over 200 pounds it would be measurably impossible to get away with it undetected. The story is a palpable humbug, like prevalent rumors that "important arrests were about to be made," etc. There certainly is one detective here, and probably two, but they simply pass along or sit talking or reading the papers in the Arlington Hotel, quiet, but with their eyes about them, whether on mint employees or not, but inferentially indicating "Let no guilty man escape."

And we may also state that the investigation is to be carried way back beyond the Adams administration for ten years or more, or, if necessary, clear through, commencing with Col. Abe Curry as Superintendent, succeeded by Rice, Hadrick, Crawford, Garrard, Wright and Hofer. Anyhow the Sphinx, Mason, is going to run the thing until he is satisfied, and is satisfied that the Government will be satisfied with his work, and he is a very level-headed, keenly perceptive, sober man.

The Government has heretofore been unfortunate in sending men out here to clean up and investigate the mint who were hard drinkers, and they perhaps somewhat corrupted our own mint officials in that respect, keeping them well loosed up and too glad to get rid of their lively Government visitors, without wrestling or worrying over the figures they had made.

THE LAST OF THE MOHICANS.

Summerfield's S. B. No. 49 and spring of 750 Income tax bill was voted by the Governor yesterday afternoon on constitutionally defective grounds. Of the 118 bills passed by the recent Legislature to become laws of the State he only vetoed six, and this was the last of all, not the least and best in the opinion of the few newspaper men with big salaries or incomes.

THE ORPHANS' HOME CHYNOE.

The change in Superintendent of the State Orphans' Home yesterday afternoon creates the chief sensation of the day. The Board, composed of State Treasurer Westerfield, Surveyor-General Pratt and Superintendent of Public Instruction Cutting, met and the change was settled in ten minutes. Pratt was for keeping the present Superintendent, Grimmon, who was well known to have given the most perfect satisfaction. Westerfield and Cutting were for A. M. Beebe of Reno—not from Boreha. Without further discussion only one ballot decided the matter.

It is a high compliment to Grimmon that not one word of fault was found with his administration.

TIM DEMPSEY'S COCOANUT.

Last September Tim Dempsey was trying to do business in San Francisco, and among his best friends whom he daily met was Charley Laughton, our general ex-Lieutenant-Governor of Nevada, lately deceased, who was there with his family. One day Charley came into Dempsey's place swinging a huge cocoon by the stem. The thick, smooth husk on it puzzled Tim, so he asked:

"What the devil you got there, Charley?"

"Oh, nothing but a cocoon I'm taking home to the folks. Going to plant it and raise something pretty."

"Never heard of such a thing before. How do you do it?"

"Why, just put it in a pot with stones and water, standing it on end, half out of water, and after awhile three sprouts and a big stem will come up out of the nut, with a splendid flower on top. We had one up in Tacoma that was the pride of the place, and I people came in from the country to see it."

"Pre-ty good, Charley, never saw or heard of such a thing before; darned if I don't try one myself."

"All right, Tim, you just take this one, and I'll get another. I insist upon it, and I'll fix you out all right on the proposition. Leave it to me."

Then away went Charley, coming back pretty soon with a fancy vase or crock as big as a nail keg, which he had paid $4 for. They planted the nut in it, and not long afterward Charley went back to Tacoma.

For three months Tim watched, watered and faithfully tended that cocoon, and but it a sprout did it show. Then he got discouraged and sent the whole on to his wife in Carson. Mrs. Dempsey followed suit in the incubation of that cocoon faithfully for a couple of months, when Tim sold out and came back to Carson. Then he concluded the nut was barren, put the big pot aside and laid the queer looking nut on a table at the rear of his saloon for customers to admire.

The other day Tim, with Jack Farlong's assistance, saved, scraped and dug off one-half of the big, thick husk lengthwise, exposing the nut itself. Come to examine, they discovered that sprouts had really started from the three feed holes or eyes at the stem end of the nut, but the fact was also made apparent that somehow it had got planted or turned wrong end up in the vase, not giving it a fair show.

"Never mind," says Tim, "I've got the pot anyhow. Carson's a good climate and I'm blessed if I don't send for another cocoon. Yes, I'll start a ranch of 'em. They give a quart of milk apiece—beats Holstein cows all holler—make a fortune out of cocoon milk punches." ALF DOTEN.

THE INCOME TAX BILL.

The Governor Withholds His Approval of the Measure.

Following is the message of Governor Jones vetoing the Income Tax bill, and giving his reasons therefor:

To the Honorable, the Secretary of State—SIR: I return herewith for filing in your office, Senate Bill No. 49, entitled "An Act to provide for the levy of a tax upon incomes and for other matters relating thereto," without my approval.

My objections to S. B. No. 49 are as follows:

1st. Under the Constitution of this State, taxation of property is provided for. Having provided one mode of taxation every other mode would seem to be excluded by the maxim of interpretation, viz: The provision of one thing or mode excludes every other mode.

2d. The mode of taxation provided by this bill is a clear departure from the mode prescribed by the State Constitution.

3d. The bill does not attempt to tax all incomes. It especially exempts from taxation incomes less than $1,000. No good reason is perceived for such exemption. The bill discriminates against the taxpayer by imposing a higher rate of taxation upon some incomes than upon others. For example: Upon incomes over 1,000 and less than $1,500, a rate of 1 per cent is levied, while upon incomes exceeding $4,000, a rate of 4 per cent is levied. It cannot be said to be conformably to the spirit of Art. X of the Constitution that such a rate of taxation is either equal or uniform.

4th. The bill particularly enumerates certain sources of income which are subjects of taxation, but contains no general clause which in my opinion is broad enough to include many sources of income not specifically mentioned.

5th. Section 6 of the bill expressly exempts from taxation incomes derived from Building and Loan Associations. This exemption is in addition to and not included in the exemption provided by article X of the Constitution of this State.

For these reasons and others which to my mind would tend to retard the investment of capital and the development of the resources of the State, I withhold my approval.

Respectfully,
JOHN E. JONES,
Governor.

MONETARY CONFERENCE.

A Manifest Fake for Political Ends Only.

The National Watchman which is edited by a member of the People's Party National Committee says of the proposed Monetary Conference:

"It might be well to remark at this particular time that no international monetary conference has been called, and the whole scheme is awaiting political developments in this country. If the friends of silver show too much strength and vigor a conference for the purpose of sidetracking the measure will be made. In Germany as well as in England some discussion in their legislative bodies has taken place, but nothing looking to a conference has occurred. The haste in which delegates to a prospective conference were selected can easily be accounted for on the grounds of political expediency. A new argument of political parties threatened, and in order to hold Senator Teller, who is the keystone to the Republican arch in the West, within the party lines he was appointed on this conference. Senator Jones of Arkansas, and Daniels of Virginia, were selected for similar reasons. In the House it was somewhat different. A desire to honor Crip and give the gold men a chance in the selection of Hunt prevailed, while it was thought Mr. Culberson and his son, who is now Governor of Texas, might hold the State in line. Taken as a whole, it is a manifest fake gotten up for political ends only."

IN MEMORIAM.

On Sunday, March 17th, from the family residence near Franktown, Nevada, there passed out from this life Miss Belle Twaddle. Throughout her long and painful illness she bore all with cheerfulness and courage, and was continually looking ahead with glad hope to the time when, as she herself expressed it, "I shall be better." She is better now. Though gone from earth she still lives; lives in the memory of her friends; lives in the life of cheerfulness and hope which they saw constantly throughout all her suffering here; lives in that spirit of love and goodness which was the real soul behind the earthly form and which was divine and immortal.

"Thus has she joined the choir invisible, Whose music is the gladness of the world."

THE ORPHANS' HOME.

A. M. Beebe of Reno appointed Superintendent.

The Orphans' Home Commissioners have elected Arthur M. Beebe of Reno Superintendent of the Orphans' Home. The Board consists of State Treasurer Westerfield, Surveyor-General Pratt and School Superintendent Cutting. Mr. Pratt voted to retain the present incumbent Mr. Grimmon, and Mr. Westerfield and Mr. Cutting voted for Mr. Beebe, who was elected.

Mr. Beebe is an old resident of Reno and is highly respected. He is sober and industrious, never uses harsh language and is kind to children. He was among the first Republicans to join the silver cause in 1892, and supported Weaver in the Presidential campaign of that year. His wife, who is an excellent lady, will be Matron of the Home, and Miss Mamie Moore will be teacher after the expiration of the present term.

The selection of Mr. Beebe gives general satisfaction, and those who are acquainted with the gentleman say that at the Board could not have made a better choice.

"HERMINE."

It is a Splendid Play and a Great Success.

"Hermine" is to be presented at McKissick's Opera House next Monday evening. The New York Daily News says of the play and the actors: The engagement of Carl Smith and Beatrice Lieb at the Windsor Theatre in their romantic military drama "Hermine" is a great success. It is a splendid play well acted.

Fined for Catching a Fish.

The California Fish Commissioners have men patrolling the Truckee and its tributaries to prevent people from fishing. The Republican says they arrested Charles Davidko, who has a wife and two children and is as poor as a church mouse, for catching a trout in Donner Lake. Davidko pleaded guilty and the Justice fined him $10, the least he could impose. Constable Long paid the fine for him and saved him from going to jail.

District Court.

Papers were filed with the Clerk yesterday in an action of foreclosure by Thos. Orr against George Ulyatt and Lucy M. Ulyatt.

The demurrer in the case of J. Talbot vs. R. Rasmussen was argued and over-ruled.

The remainder of the day was occupied with the argument in the case of the White Cloud Copper Mining Company vs. Lovelock. The argument will be concluded to-day.

A Family Suit.

Robert E. Moore, who with his family resided in Reno two or three years ago, has brought suit against his uncle, G. W. Grayson, for $31,000 damages, as a result of the failure of Grayson to deed him 1,202 acres of land in Elko county. The plaintiff claims that according to contract Grayson was to deed him 2,445 acres of land stocked with horses and cattle, but that he only deeded him 1,243 acres.

S. N. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large fever sores on his leg and doctors said he was incurable. One bottle of Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold at S. J. Hodgkinson's drug store.

Viavi Tablets.

Viavi is now being prepared in a special form for the stomach. We have realized for a long time that the membrane of the stomach, being similar to the membrane of other portions of the body, could, if this remedy were applied in a pre-digested form, be greatly strengthened. The preparation has the same action in the stomach as the natural juices, whose strength has decreased when stomach trouble exists. To prepare Viavi in this form has taken nearly two years of constant effort, and it is probably the only instance on record where a preparation has been made in a form already digested, requiring no action or effort on the part of the system to assimilate it.

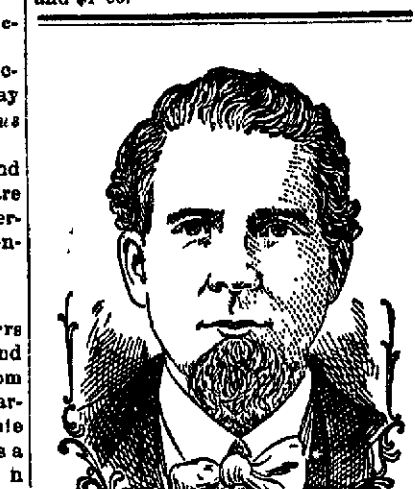

The Tablets should be used whenever there is inflammation, congestion, or catarrh of the stomach and bowels. Indigestion, properly speaking, is a catarrhal condition of the stomach and bowels and prevents them from changing the foods into the proper substances for absorption.

Heart Palpitation

Cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla

"I had what is called palpitation of the heart; it never left me for a moment. Sometimes I would almost fall over, and Could Not Stay in a Close Room or a crowd of people. Physicians did not do me any good; in fact, I seemed to be growing worse all the time until I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was soon better, and after taking 3 bottles, I was perfectly cured. My wife is taking Hood's Sarsaparilla for rheumatism, and it is doing her more good than all other medicine she has ever taken. She has been prostrated by rheumatism frequently for seven years, and the past year has been so that she could not turn over in bed without help. Now she can get around and do her work." J. P.
